No. 4024/CS dy 17-2-50 to the Huzur Secy to HH forwarding a bill for Rs. 16189-5-4 due on account of the flight of H.H. the Dowager Maharani of Mysore during the period May-June 48 in Dakota VT Box.

Letter no. 70 dy 6-4-50 from the Huzur Secy to HH stating that no charges were preferred for flights of H.H. on previous occasions.

Sanad. The relevant Deposit papers bearing nos. 306, 463 and 827 of 47-48 in respect of the flights of H.H. the Dowager Maharani of Mysore to Bombay and back on 26-12-47 and 4-4-48 referred to in the Huzur Secy's letter are placed below for perusal. As can be seen from the previous papers on the subject, no charges on account of these flights seems to have been preferred. Soon after the tariff of rates for flights in the Dakota were approved, the D-C-A was requested to draw up bills on account of all flights undertaken. But it is seen from a statement of flights furnished by the D-C-A in this connection (with a duplicate copy removed from the main file dealing with the charges for flights and placed below) that these flights have not been included therein as the statement in question is in respect of flights dating from 4-11-48 and how far action has been taken

	11) In view of the orders at para 8, the question of recovering the Charges on account of flights undertaken on behalf of H. H. the Dowager Maharani prior to July 1948 does not seem to arise. The amount involved is not known as the charges were neither Calculated nor Claimed. In any case, the proposal to drop the claim in the circumstances seems to require financial concurrence and it is for orders whether the file may at this stage be put up to the Minister for Finance and Instructions through the Financial Secretary.
	12) Orders are also solicited whether the charges amounting to Rs. 16,189-5-4 for flights in the Mysore Dakota between the 4th May and

Sir,

With reference to your No.926/CB dated 19-4-'50 in the matter of flights of Her Highness the Dowager Maharani of Mysore in the Dakota VT-AXX, I write to state that it was only in July 1948 this office was formed and prior to it the Director of Industries and Commerce was in charge and as such it is not known whether the bills were sent by him for flights made when the Department was under his control and it was presumed that he would have sent bills for realisation and amounts due recovered by him. Bills were all prepared by this office only from November '48 after the formation of this office and sent to the Chief Secretary to Government through the Comptroller.
